

as well. See article in the Log to catch the spirit of the two-day effort by Management 101-Company D BU students.

Thanks to Lindsay Miller, Megan Van Horn, Joe Keller, Rolf & Annick Helbig, Joanne Reilly and Kathy Rowe who assisted Geoff Goodenow on the Conservancy's Adopt-a-Road alongside Penns Creek in Limestone Township.

Thanks to Teri MacBride, Joe Keller, and Margaret Moyer who did the spring Linn Log's bulk mailing to members.

Thanks to the Bucknell Earth Day Committee which adopted the Merrill W. Linn Land & Waterways Conservancy as its philanthropy for 2000. A lot of exposure on campus and a check for $500.00 were the results of the efforts of MacCaffey and the Earth Day Committee. Thanks to member, Clyde Peeling, who spoke at their Saturday event. Jeannette Lasansky presented A Vision of the Valley later in the week at a dinner meeting.

Thanks to Fred & Virginia Kessler for their gift in memory of Anthony "Mark" Zulli of Lewisburg.

Thanks to members Betsy Quant, Neal Woodruff, June Hoyle, Roger Curran, Rob Cook, Shirley Bingaman, Wayne McDiffett, and Warren Abrahamson who sought out new members for the Conservancy last spring.

Thanks for additional giving from the Mifflinburg Bank & Trust, Bill & Judy Becker, John & Nancy Libby, and Beth Clark.

Thanks to June Hoyle and Roger Curran, who along with the Conservancy Coordinator Jeannette Lasansky, made presentations about the Conservancy which included our own video, Vision of the Valley. These presentations were requested by AAUW, the Lewisburg Civic Club, DAR, the Lewisburg Club, the Buffalo Valley Kiwanis, and PEO. If you are a member of a civic organization that would like to know more about the Linn Conservancy please call the office and we will present a program of suitable length to your audience.

Thanks to Dick Nickelsen and Rolf Helbig who led spring walks into different parts of the Montandon Marsh. Thirty-five people now have a better understanding of the importance and complexity of the different sites within the complex of marsh, swamp, bog and uplands there. We will try to continue to offer such educational walks to small groups both in the fall and spring months.

Thanks to member Chris Snyder of the Natural Foods Store who donated 4 bird boxes (2 screech owl and 2 chickadee) for Dale's Ridge Trail and to Rolf Helbig who installed them this past April.

Thanks to Pam Paulsen who asked Keith Phelps, landscaper, for table flower arrangements for the annual dinner. The plants were a huge success as the examples chosen often were referred to by the dinner speaker and ten lucky dinner attendees went home with them!

Thanks to Lettie Davis, Rose Ann Koons, Annick and Rolf Helbig, Roger Curran, Carol Manbeck and her family, Pete Macky, and John Snook for help reach out to the public on Mifflinburg Buggy Day. Thanks also to Chris and Kate Snyder of Natural Foods Store for donating a percentage of all the bird related sales to the Linn Conservancy. We plan to have a similar booth at December's Christkindl Market in Mifflinburg. Look for us there and if you would like to
